

Name: _____

Date: _____

Chapter 6

Across

3. Who should you give feedback to, and the assessments of the child's progress__

8. This can balance the intense, personal side of teaching__

10. __defines how to sense and respond to interactions and relationships

11. You can either replace or supplement standardized__ tools for elementary aged children

12. Observation plays an important role in__

13. __refers to what you put in the daily sequence and time periods for activities

Down

1. Teachers are engaged as researchers, in both__ and through reflection

2. How to guide them, where intervention is needed__

4. What resources are needed to promote effective teaching__

5. How to set it up and change it defines the__

6. __this type of assessment is done when children are in their natural setting and performing real tasks

7. __are the activities to set up for learning and development, what to adjust, delete, or enhance to meet program and child goals

9. __is inherent in all perceptions