

Chapter 10- Health Programs

Across

- 2. The results or impact of program interventions.
- 6. Addresses health issues of populations and consists of four steps: assessing, planning, implementing, and evaluating a health program, in partnership with the client. Health program _____.
- 8. The process of enabling people to increase control over and improve their health
- 9. 12 factors that influence the risk for or distribution of health outcomes.
- 10. Consists of a variety of planned activities to address the assessed health concerns of clients over time and builds on client strengths to meet specific goals and objectives.

Down

- 1. Nursing that takes place in and with the community in a variety of practice areas,
- 3. Model that clarifies the logical linkages between program input, outputs, and outcomes
- 4. model is widely used for planning due to its comprehensiveness;
- 5. Health planning that's used on a smaller scale and starts with a specific objective.
- 7. Health planning that involves matching client health needs, client and provider strengths and competencies, and resources.