

Name: _____

Date: _____

Chapter 10 Vocab

Across

2. the document that set up our current framework for government; written in 1787 and ratified in 1788

6. to withdraw from the union

7. a group of representatives who formally elect the president and vice president each state had electives equal to the number of its representatives in congress

8. a fee for instruction

10. those who opposed a strong central government and did not favor ratification of the US constitution

11. a compromise at the constitutional convention in which the states agreed that the house of representatives would be based proportional and the senate would have equal representation

Down

1. the first constitution of the United States; ratified in 1781, it created a weak federal government and was eventually replaced

3. refers to legislature that has one house

4. the first amendments to the US constitution

5. those who supported a strong national government and ratification of the US constitution

9. the ability to buy something now and pay for it later over a period of time