

Chapter 10 Vocabulary

Across

2. An election where only declared members of a political party are allowed to vote for that party

6. more than 50%

8. A strong party organization that can control political appointments and deliver votes

12. A political party that challenges the two major political parties

13. A meeting of political party members

14. To advance a cause or an idea

15. A geographic area containing a certain amounts of votes

16. An election where voters chose candidates to represent each political part

Down

1. the most votes among all running

3. Representatives from the 50 states who run a political party

4. An election where voters don't have to declare their party

5. A system of government where two political parties compete for power

7. An association of voters with broad common political views

9. Statements expressing a party's views on election issues

10. Located next to

11. To put special importance on