

Chapter 12: Social Psychology

Across

4. group's expectations regarding what is appropriate and acceptable for the thoughts and behavior of its members
5. negative actions toward individuals as a result of their membership in a particular group
7. act of blaming an out-group when the in-group experiences frustration or is blocked from obtaining a goal.
9. evaluations of or feelings toward a person, idea, or object that are typically positive or negative.
10. specific beliefs or assumptions about individuals based solely on their membership in a group, regardless of their individual characteristics

Down

1. type of love occurring when intimacy, passion, and commitment are all present
2. situation in which a witness or bystander does not volunteer to help a victim or person in distress
3. process of changing our attitude toward something based on some form of communication
6. Group that we identify with or see ourselves as belonging to
8. prejudice and discrimination toward individuals based solely on their age