

Chapter 12: Alcohol

Across

2. a pattern of drinking that results in one or more well-defined behaviors within a 12-month period

4. a condition in which fats build up in the liver and cannot be broken down

5. a group of alcohol-related birth defects that include both physical and mental problems

7. other ways of thinking or acting

11. persons who create an atmosphere in which the alcoholic can comfortably continue his or her unacceptable behavior

15. a type of addiction in which the body itself feels a direct need for a drug

16. the physical process of freeing the body of an addictive substance

17. a condition in which the body doesn't get the nutrients it needs to grow and function properly

18. the physical and psychological reactions that occur when someone stops using an addictive substance

19. a conscious or unconscious restraint of a person's own behaviors or actions

20. a disease characterized by scarring and eventual destruction of the liver

21. a gathering in which family and friends get the problem drinker to agree to seek help

22. drugs that slow down the body's functions and reactions

23. a measure of the amount of alcohol present in a person's blood

Down

1. the ability of the body to respond quickly and appropriately to situations

3. a return to the use of a drug after attempting to stop

6. a drug that is produced by a chemical reaction in fruits, vegetables, and grains

8. the consumption of a large quantity of alcohol in a very short period of time

9. a physical or psychological need for a drug

10. a process in which your body needs more and more of a drug to get the same effect

12. the process of learning to live an alcohol-free life

13. a dangerous condition that results when a person drinks excessive amounts of alcohol over a short time period

14. a person's mental and physical abilities have been impaired by alcohol