

Name: _____

Date: _____

Chapter 13 Terms

Across

2. point where injurious object exits the body
 4. burns extending through skin and into or beyond the underlying tissues
 7. burns that occur when any toxic substance comes in contact with skin
 8. injury in which soft tissue damage occurs beneath skin, but no break in surface of skin
 10. bleeding in which blood oozes from open wound
 13. injury caused by blunt object striking body and crushing tissue beneath skin; also called a contusion

15. severe allergic shock

17. placed directly on a wound to control bleeding and prevent further contamination

18. burns caused by contact with high- or low- voltage electricity

Down

1. heart disease characterized by breathlessness, fluid retention in lungs, and generalized swelling of body

3. used in taking blood pressure and checking pulse in infants; located in arm between elbow and shoulder

5. point where injurious object enters the body

6. pressure point located in groin

9. pressure of circulating blood against walls of arteries

11. bleeding from an artery

12. two upper chambers of the heart

14. loss of skin as a result of a body part being rubbed or scraped across rough/hard surface

16. triangular swathe used to hold body part splinted against body