

Name: _____

Chapter 14 Crossword

Across

- 3. German professor of theology, composer, priest, monk, and a seminal figure in the Protestant Reformation
4. A wealthy banker in Florence and ruled as a dictator but kept up the appearance of having an elected government.
10. Wrote "On the Dignity of Man" which stated that man was made in the image of God before the fall and as Christ after the Resurrection.
12. Wrote "The Courtier" which was about education and manners and had a great influence
14. a German blacksmith, goldsmith, printer, and publisher who introduced printing to Europe with the printing press.
16. Historian of the Roman Republic who wrote about the struggle between plebeians and patricians of Rome
18. This French pope was elected to take the place of Urban VI
20. This man was the leader of Florence after the Medici were overthrown in 1494, as well as a Christian preacher and reformer.

- 21. An Italian painter, sculptor, and architect of the fifteenth and sixteenth centuries.

- 23. Founded the Platonic Academy at the behest of Cosimo de' Medici in the 1460s. Translated Plato's works into Latin

- 24. Florentine who first gave the name humanitas, or "humanity", to the learning that resulted from such scholarly pursuits as Studia Humanitatis

- 25. Henry VIII mistress and second wife during the time of the English Reformation, she gave birth to Elizabeth, future queen of England.

Down

- 1. one of Socrates' students; was considered by many to be a great Athenian philosopher of western civilization.

- 2. a scholar and poet of Renaissance Italy who was one of the earliest humanists.

- 5. Wrote "The Prince" which contained a secular method of ruling a country

- 6. Spanish churchman and founder of the Jesuits.

- 7. an English poet, playwright and actor, widely regarded as both the greatest writer in the English language, and the world's pre-eminent dramatist.

- 8. English king that left the Catholic church and started the Church of England.

- 9. humanist scholar who studied early Christian as well as classical culture

- 11. Florentine Painter who led the way in the use of realism.

- 13. Queen of England that could not produce a male heir for Henry VIII.

- 15. Coined the word Renaissance. Italian painter and art historian.

- 17. made up an advertising scheme for the sale of indulgences.

- 19. French theologian, pastor and reformer in Geneva during the Protestant Reformation.

- 22. Conservative Roman senator

Word Bank

William Shakespeare	Johan Gutenberg	John Tetzal	Francesco Petrarch	Henry VIII
Ignatius of Loyola	Leonardo Bruni	Catherine of Aragon	Martin Luther	Guilio Medici VII
Cicero	Plato	Giotto	Castiglione	Lorenzo Medici
Marsilio Facino	Michelangelo	Pico Della Mirandola	Giorgio Vasari	Anne Boleyn
Savonarola	Desiderius Erasmus	John Calvin	Niccolo Machiavelli	Livy