Chapter 15

Across

5. curriculum enrichment activities
6. make websites more usable by people with various disabilities
9. limits an individual from performing an activity
13. providing students with alternatives to acquiring information beyond a textbook
14. loss of hearing or vision
17. written plan for how students needs will be addressed
18. video camera mounted on a frame with a television monitor
19. software to scan and translate print into a word processed file
20. 1 in 88 children have been identified with this disorder
21. law that created expectations for closing the achievement gap
24. the perspective that assistive technologies had a role to help many students
25. online learning opportunities

Down

1. arises when an individual is unable to fulfill a role due to a disability
2. utility software that reads all text that appears on the screen
3. simplifies the physical or cognitive demands of interacting with the computer
4. allows gifted programs to offer more tailored services to meet diverse needs
7. teacher wears a wireless microphone to amplify their voice for students with hearing impairments
8. help students with poor decoding skills by reading the words aloud for them
10. abnormality or loss of function
11. device with a handle that moves in all directions
12. used for controlling and getting input to the computer as well as activating control systems
15. tasked with creating and carrying out the IEP
16. when disabled children are educated with non-disabled children
22. set of principles that underlie how to develop technology to give everyone equal opportunities to learn
23. draws attention to the need to provide students with various methods of demonstrating what they know