

Name: _____

Date: _____

Chapter 15

Across

2. Circumstances that exist that require immediate action and do not allow time to get a search warrant.

3. Amount of money set by the court payment of which is a condition of pretrial release from custody.

7. What exists when an officer has a reasonable basis for the belief that a person should be searched or arrested.

10. A written order of a court allowing law enforcement officers to search certain places or arrest certain people.

11. A criminal plea that means "I will not contest it."

12. Rule that excludes evidence taken in violation of constitutional protections.

Down

1. A criminal charge against a defendant that must be proven at trial.

4. A writ to bring a person before a court in order to test the legality of a persons imprisonment or detention.

5. A serious crime punishable by death or imprisonment for over a year.

6. Jury called upon to receive and review accusations and complaints in criminal matters.

8. The physical seizing of a person by the government.

9. Hearing where a criminal defendant comes before the court to enter a plea.