

Chapter 15 Matching Vocab

- | | |
|--|------------------------------|
| 1. Score based on number or percentage points earned on items answered correctly | A. raw score |
| 2. What students have achieved relative to specific instructional objectives or standards. | B. Age equivalent score |
| 3. Comparing a students performance with the performance of others. | C. criterion referenced |
| 4. Scores relating to students grade. | D. Mean |
| 5. Scores relating to the students age. | E. norm referenced score |
| 6. The percentage of people at the same age/grade level getting a raw score less than or equal to the student's raw score. | F. Confidence Intervals |
| 7. Pattern of educational and psychological characteristics | G. Standard Deviation |
| 8. Average set of scores | H. Adaptive Testing |
| 9. Variability of set of scores | I. Percentile Score |
| 10. person performance in the normal distribution. | J. Standardized Tests |
| 11. Report on performance on intelligence tests. | K. School Readiness tests |
| 12. Examples include SAT tests and GREs. | L. electronic Portfolio |
| 13. Test to see if students are ready for Kindergarten or first grade. | M. Normal distribution |
| 14. Adjusts the difficulty level as the students go through the tests. | N. IQ Scores |
| 15. Reflect the amount of errors | O. Grade equivalent score |
| 16. Collections of work collected over a period of time. | P. Portfolios |
| 17. sample of work stored on a electronic storage device | Q. scholastic aptitude tests |
| 18. All students receive the same instruction and respond to the same questions. | R. ETS Scores |
| 19. designed to assess a general capacity to learn. | S. specific aptitude tests |
| 20. How well students are able to perform in a particular content. | T. Standard Scores |