

Name: _____

Date: _____

Chapter 15 Section 2

Across

2. Protects people against discrimination on the basis of race, gender, color when trying to buy a house or obtain a lone
5. A set of voluntary promises, enforceable by law, between parties who agree to do or not do something
6. Also known as civil cases
8. An oral or written agreement
9. Where parties talk things over
10. an important type of civil law that deals with the use and ownership of the property

11. disputes among two or more individuals or between individuals in the government

Down

1. Relationships among family members including marriage, divorce, and child custody issues
3. one-fifth to one-half of the total money won in the lawsuit
4. Any wrongful act other than a breach of contract, for which the injured party has the right to sue for damages in a civil court
7. Indication that the plaintiff also did something wrong