

Name: _____ Date: _____

Chapter 16 Behavioral Disorder

- |   |                                  |
|---|----------------------------------|
| 1. An anxiety disorder marked by unpredictable minutes-long episodes of intense dread in which a person experiences terror and accompanying chest pain, choking, or other frightening sensations.   | A. Social Anxiety Disorder       |
| 2. A mental disorder characterized by delusions, hallucinations, disorganized speech and behavior.  | B. Somatic Symptoms Disorder     |
| 3. An emotion characterized by feelings of tension, worried thoughts and physical changes like increased blood pressure.  | C. Conversion Disorder           |
| 4. Also known as manic depression, this is a mood disorder in which the person's mood swings from euphoric, manic stages to depressed   | D. Schizophrenia                 |
| 5. Dissociative Identity Disorder (previously known as multiple personality disorder), is a controversial diagnosis of a psychological disorder that manifests itself in the presence of two or more alternate personalities in the same body that may or may not be aware of each other's existence. | E. Bipolar Disorder              |
| 6. Intense fear of being in a place or situation from which escape might be difficult or in which help might not be available in the event of the panic attack.   | F. Dissociative Disorder         |
| 7. This deals with the source of the irrational fear is a specific situation or object  | G. Dissociative Amnesia          |
| 8. This disorder is distinguished by deep depression.   | H. Agoraphobia                   |
| 9. An anxiety disorder that typically follows a traumatic event or events and is characterized by a reliving of that event  | I. Panic Disorder                |
| 10. This disorder typically manifest as a sensory or motor system disturbance for which there is no known organic cause.  | J. Depressive Disorder           |
| 11. With this disorder you are compelled to avoid situations in which they may be observed behaving in an ineffective or embarrassing matter  | K. Anxiety                       |
| 12. A person experiences sudden loss of memory usually after a particularly stressful traumatic event.  | L. Phobia                        |
| 13. Allows a person to escape from or avoid the negative reinforcer of anxiety.   | M. Posttraumatic Stress Disorder |