

Name: _____ Date: _____

Chapter 17 Domestic Policy(no spaces between words)

Across

6. This is financed by a payroll tax paid by employers

10. type of agenda that is the changing list of issues to which governments believe they should address themselves

12. This technique provides people with information, education, or training.

13. policy_____is the approval of a policy proposal by the people with the requisite authority, such as legislature

15. policy_____is the crafting of appropriate and acceptable proposed course of action to ameliorate or resolve public problems

Down

1. this technique appeals to people's better instinct

2. The constant process of forming the list of issues to be addressed by government

3. Program where income security intended to assist those whose incomes fall below a designated level.

4. Cost of this item in the health care spending has decreased in price since 1999

5. policy_____is the process of carrying out public policy through governmental agencies and the courts

7. Program such as social security where benefits are provided irrespective of the income of means of recipients.

8. policy_____is the process of determining whether a course of action is achieving its intended goals.

9. What is the increase in global temperatures due to carbon emissions from burning fossil fuels such as coal and oil?

11. type of agenda where all public issues that are viewed as requiring governmental attention

14. An intentional course of action followed by government in dealing with some problem or matter of concern