

Name: _____

Date: _____

Chapter 17 word

Across

3. an economic system in which the productive resources—farms, factories, machines, and so on—are owned by private citizens
4. there are not enough resources to meet people's wants
6. buyers will demand, or want, a greater quantity of a good when its price is low
8. money a business has left after it has paid its expenses
11. - if it is the only company selling a product.
12. shares of ownership
14. The right to buy and sell goods as you want

15. businesses will produce more products when they can sell them at higher prices

16. Corporate profits paid to stockholders

17. a person who organizes, manages, and assumes the risks of a business.

19. organizations provide goods and services without seeking to earn a profit for stockholders

20. A small business owned by one person

Down

1. A business in which two or more people share the responsibilities, costs, profits, and losses

2. type of business that is recognized as a separate legal entity

5. can be found on or in the Earth or in Earth's atmosphere

7. business owners may operate however they see fit, with little direction or interference by government

9. All human effort, skills, and abilities used to produce goods and services are called

10. The people who buy corporate stocks

13. economic decisions are made by people looking out for their own best interests

18. the manufactured goods used to make other goods and services.