

Chapter 1 Crossword

Across

- 2. beliefs about language, what constitutes language and what is acceptable as appropriate language use
- 9. signaled by groups of people within a community
- 10. social group whose members share assumptions about the kind of speaking that is appropriate
- 11. method discovers patterns of linguistic variations

Down

- 1. includes analysis of speech, situational contexts, and cultural norms

- 3. expressed both symbolically and by evaluative communicative behavior
- 4. employs anthropological techniques of gathering data from observations of people's daily lives
- 5. construction of reality that is created, shared, and transmitted by a group
- 6. the ways people's identities are created, maintained and expressed in social constructs
- 7. conveyed through forms of language that occur or are excluded in various contexts
- 8. people with regular contact with one another