

Chapter 1 Thinking like an OT

Across

4. refers to a variety of interrelated conditions within and surrounding the client. Those conditions include cultural, personal, temporal, and virtual contexts. Environment are the physical and social conditions that surround a person.
6. seven have been identified: altruism, dignity, equality, freedom, justice, truth, and prudence
7. unselfish concern for the welfare of others
8. tailoring of medical treatments to the individual characteristics of each patient with focus on the individual.
9. refers to a variety of interrelated conditions within and surrounding the client. Those conditions include cultural, personal, temporal, and virtual contexts. Environment are the physical and social conditions that surround a person.
10. Placing the individual ahead of the disability.

11. ability to govern and discipline oneself through the use of reason. Value

Down

1. habits, routines, roles, and rituals used in the process of engaging in occupations or activities that can change or hinder occupational performance.
2. observable elements of action that have an implicit functional purpose these skills are separated into the categories of motor skills, process skills, and social interaction skills.
3. clinical decision making that integrates the best available research with clinical expertise and patient characteristics and preferences
5. ADLs, IADLs, rest and sleep, education, work, play, leisure, social participation.

Word Bank

Core Values

altruism

evidence-based practice

Person First Language

Prudence

personalized medicine

Client Factors

Performance Patterns

Context and Environment

Occupations

Performance Skills