

Chapter 1 Vocabulary

Across

3. activities that take place before or after school

6. people who support or promote the interests of others

8. The courses taught in a school, what is taught in each course, and how the courses are sequenced

10. postsecondary schools that are designed to teach specific skills needed to begin working in a trade

12. people who design, conduct and supervise programs to improve the skills of a company's employees

13. not based on, or affiliated with, any religion

14. a person who studies human behavior and mental processes and develops theories to explain why people behave the way they do

15. a group of conditions that can severely impact learning (2 words, no space)

16. education that takes place after high school

Down

1. thinking about things that are actually experienced

2. Refers to a classroom arrangement in which the same teacher & group of students remain in one classroom for most of the day, with 1 teacher teaching most all subjects.

4. a curriculum developed by the teachers and staff of a school or school district for use in their own classrooms

5. learning that takes place when students work in groups to discuss and solve problems together

7. the distinct and unique differences among people

9. a person who has less education or experience, but works under the supervision of a highly educated professional

11. thinking about ideas and concepts and connecting feelings with thoughts (ex. justice, love)