

Chapter 1 Vocabulary Crossword Puzzle

Across

- 4. A map that represents the geology of an area is called a _____.
- 6. A three dimensional volume of a certain kind of rock of a given range is called a _____.
- 8. A _____ is where two rock formations occur next to each other.
- 9. A map that refers to the shape of a surface, including the position of it's features and elevation
- 10. _____ is the verticle view of a drawing.

Down

- 1. The distance (in degrees) that measures east or west of the prime meridian.
- 2. A _____ shows all the symbols used in a map and what the symbols mean.
- 3. The distance (in degrees) that measures north or south of the equator.
- 5. _____ are lines on maps that put together the points of equal elevation.
- 7. Maps that are drawn in _____ are drawn as if you're looking down on the area from above Earth's surface.