

Chapter 1 and 2 Wordsearch

Across

3. What are the initials for a certified dental assistant?
5. The process of using electronic transfer of images and other information for consultation and/or insurance purposes in dentistry.
7. A mixture of mercury, silver, and tin.
8. A person who meets the standards of a profession is considered a _____.
9. Area of dentistry that establishes the identity of an individual on the basis of dental evidence such as dental records, impressions, bite marks, and so forth.

10. What are the initials for the organization that represents the profession of dental assisting on a national level?

Down

1. A formal article or book based on dental evidence and facts.
2. Recognized as the Patroness of Dentistry
4. What type of disease are infections and other conditions of the structures that support the teeth (gum and bones).
6. What are the initials of the act that was passed in 1996 which specifies federal regulations that ensure privacy regarding a patient's healthcare information?