

Chapter 20

Across

2. Who controlled the steel industry in the 1800s?
 9. What was the conflict where a person threw a bomb on a meeting and killed and wounded cops?
 10. What were places where workers labored long hours under poor conditions for low wages called?
 13. What labor union helped found a new national organization of unions?
 14. American industry didn't grow at a steady pace. A pattern of good and bad times is called?
 15. What is a machine that produces electric current called?
 17. A chemist reported that kerosene could be made more cheaply from an oily liquid called what?

18. What is a government document giving an inventor the exclusive right to make and sell their invention?
 19. What did writers Mark Twain and Charles Warner name the era 1800s?
 20. What's a company that wipes out its competitors and controls an industry?

Down

1. Who are people that give large sums of money to charities?
 3. What did the Pullman workers begin throughout the rail industry?
 4. What was a loose federation of workers from all different trades?
 5. What was the system that divided the United States into four time zones?
 6. Who called on all U.S. railroad workers to refuse to handle Pullman cars?

7. What's a business owned by investors who buy part of the company through shares of stock?
 8. Who was the inventor that found the most ways to use electricity?
 11. What railroad would encourage people to settle the West and develop its economy?
 12. What union organization focused on improving working conditions?
 16. What is a legal body created to hold stock in many companies?