

Chapter 24 Crossword

Across

1. Relationship that exists when two mutually dependent groups in a society recognize certain expectations of each other & conduct their affairs accordingly
4. Set of values that an individual or group has as each person's personal guide
6. Use of moral principles as a basis for defending a chosen path of action in resolving an ethical dilemma
14. Accepted customs, principles, or habits of right living
15. Articulated statements of role morality as seen by members of a profession
17. health-related information about a patient's should not be revealed to others
18. Manners & attitudes generally accepted by members of a profession
20. Ethical reflections that emphasize an intimate personal relationship value system that includes such virtues as sympathy, compassion, fidelity, discernment, & love
21. Regulations established by the government
22. Ideals & customs of a society towards which the members of a group have
23. Study of rightness & wrongness of human conduct and character as known by natural reason
25. Belief that the worth of actions is determined by their ends

26. rights separately from governmental or institutional guarantees
27. belief that individual rights provide the vital protection of life, liberty, expression, & property
28. Belief system based on a set of moral principles that are embedded in a common morality
30. Obligations placed on individuals, groups, & institutions
31. Duty to tell the truth & avoid deception
32. Equitable, fair, or just conduct in dealing with others
33. Rights of individuals that are established & guaranteed by law
34. Ethical principle that places high value on avoiding harm to others
35. ARRT's mandatory standards of minimally acceptable professional conduct

Down

2. emotional commitment to, willingness to act on behalf of the acts themselves
5. Situations requiring moral judgement between two or more equally problem fraught alternatives
7. Standards set by individuals or groups of individuals
8. Individual is protected & allowed to pursue personal projects
9. Gross violation of commonly held standards of decency
10. Freedom of will/Persons self-reliance

11. Internal controls of a profession based on moral principles
12. Doing of good
13. Publicly displayed ethical conduct of a profession, usually embedded in a code of ethics
16. character that is socially valued
19. ethical principles
24. Strict observance or promises or duties
29. Justified claims that an individual can make on individuals, groups, or society