

Name: _____

Date: _____

Chapter 25 Crossword

Across

2. Permanent or longlasting documentation of all patient care info that applies to individual patients

5. Medicared Serives to surbey all hospitals & other types of health care organizations

9. System for Medicare patients by which a predetermined level of reimbursement is established before services are provided

10. System that categorizes into payment groups patients who are medically related & statistically similar with length of stay

11. Classification sysytem is used for diagnosis coding in health care settings in US

13. used to encompass both registered health info administrators & registered health info technicians

15. Quality of the caer & services provided to patients within a health care facility

Down

1. Organization that accredits & cetifies health care organizations & other programs in the US

3. Professionals who posses the expertise to develop, implement, manage individual, aggregate, & public health care data in support of patient safety & privacy, confidentiality & security of health info

4. Professionals who are technical experts in health data collection, analysis, monitoring, maintenance, & reporting activities in accordance with established data-quality principles, legal & regulatory standards, & professional best practice guidelines

6. Federal legislation passed to imprpove the efficiency & effectiveness of health care system

7. Allows providers to gather multiple types of data about a patient

8. System used in US to report morbidity & mortality info until Sep 30, 2015

12. Used in the US for coding for physician reimbursment & hospital outpatient & surgical procedures

14. Classification system of patients based on the International Classification of Diseases; codes for diagnoses, procedure codes

16. Classification system the US for reporting of inpatient hospital procedures