

Chapter 25 Word Puzzle

Across

7. HealthcareFacilitiesAccreditationProgram
 8. Organization That accredits and certifies health care organizations and other programs in the United States (The Joint Commission,2017)
 10. Permanent or long lasting documentation of all patient care information that applies to individual patients
 11. Professionals who possess the expertise to develop, implement, and /or manage individuals, aggregate, and public health care data in support of patients safety and privacy, as well as the confidentiality and security of health information
 13. Classification system of patients based on the international classification of Diseases, clinical, modification codes for diagnoses, current procedural
 14. The classification system to replace ICD-9-CM volumes 1 and 2 on October 1,2015 This classification system is used for coding in all health care settings in the United States

15. Systems that categorizes into payment groups patients who are medically related with respect to diagnosis and treatment and statistically similar with regard to length of stay
Down

1. Electronic health record system generally considered as the portal through which clinicians access to patients health record, order treatments or therapy, and document care delivered to patients; allows providers to gather multiple types of data about a patients financial, administrative, and research
 2. Comprehensive listing of medical terms and codes for the uniform designation of diagnostic and therapeutic procedures; used in the United States for coding for physician reimbursement and hospital outpatient and ambulatory surgical procedures
 3. A classification system used in the United States for reporting of inpatient hospital procedures

4. Process by which the quality of the care and services provided to the patients within a health care facility is monitored and evaluated
 5. Professionals who are technical experts in health data collection, analysis, monitoring, maintenance, and reporting activities in accordance with established data quality principles, legal and regulatory standards, and professionals best practice guidelines
 6. System for Medicare patients by which a predetermined level of reimbursement is established before services are provided
 9. The classification system used used in the United States to report morbidity and mortality
 12. Term used to encompass both registered health information administrators and registered health information technicians as individuals with either of these credentials who hold a variety if positions within the health information management proffession