

Chapter 26-31

Across

5. The sale of the assets of a business for cash and the distribution of that cash among creditors and shareholders
 6. The lowest hourly wage that an employer can legally pay an employee
 7. An employee who tells the government or the media that his or her employer is engaged in some unsafe or illegal activity
 10. An association of two or more persons to carry on as co-owners, a business for profit
 12. A written agreement between a stockholder and another under which the stockholder authorizes the other to vote the stockholder's shares in a certain manner
 13. The severance of the relationship between a partner and a partnership

14. A person authorized by another to act for or in place of him or her

16. A principal whose identity and existence as a principal is known by a third person at the time a contract is made by an agent
 18. A document authorizing another to act as ones agent or attorney
 19. The simplest form of business in which the owner is the business

Down

1. A defense in which the employer demonstrates that an employment practice that discriminates against members of a protected class is related to job performance
 2. The process by which labor and management negotiate the terms and conditions of employment

3. A distribution of profits or income to shareholders, disbursed in proportion to the number of shares held

4. The formal disbanding of a partnership or a corporation
 8. The confirmation by one person of an act or contract performed or entered into on his or her behalf by another
 9. An equity or ownership interest in a corporation that is measured in units of shares
 11. A set of governing rules or regulations adopted by a corporation or other association
 15. A firm that requires union membership as a condition of employment
 17. A certificate of evidence a corporate debt. It is a security that involves no ownership interest in the issuing corporation