

Name: _____

Date: _____

Chapter 26 Vocab

Across

7. price paid per unit of labor services, in this case an hour of work.

8. Group of workers in a given occupation pressure federal, state, or municipal government to pass a law

9. Wage that is the lowest you can get paid, made by the government

10. market in which a single employer of labor has substantial buying power.

Down

1. annual salaries for different occupations, doctors make more than teachers

2. a union that can threaten to deprive firms of their entire labor supply

3. personal stock of knowledge, know how, and skills that enables a person to be productive

4. it's pure form there is a single seller and a single buyer.

5. practices result in higher wage rates and constitute

6. quantity of goods and services a worker can obtain with nominal wages.