

Chapter 2

Across

2. Healthcare systems that combine the financial and clinical aspects of healthcare and use a group of healthcare providers.

4. Have residents that are over age 65 and often are classified as the frail elderly.

6. Healthcare rendered in a nonacute-care facility to patients who require inpatient nursing and related services.

7. Treating individual patients at the level of care required by their course of treatment.

8. Leaders of the organization's medical staff to develop the hospital's strategic direction as well as its mission.

9. Patients go to locations outside their homes to obtain healthcare services and return the same day.

10. Spell out the specific qualifications that physicians must demonstrate before they can practice medicine in the hospital.

Down

1. 25 days or less in an acute care hospital.

3. Major health information technology law.

5. Encourage doctors and hospitals to use information technology.