

Chapter 2

Across

- 5. How many categories of disabilities are recognized by IDEA?
- 7. Who usually conducts an assessment and diagnoses a child to determine which category they fall under?
- 8. These children may need a sign language interpreter
- 9. What is the emotion parents encounter most often if their child has a disability?
- 10. What could help school personnel to understand and effectively meet the child's needs?
- 11. What percent of the population meet the criteria for ID?

Down

- 1. These people work with students or have speech or language impairments. (Also known as SLPs)
- 2. Requires a structured, individualized curriculum that emphasizes functional skills, language and communication, and behavior management
- 3. Categorizing a problem and giving it a name
- 4. Who may feel responsible for a child's difficulties with learning?
- 6. An aquired brain injury that affects specific parts of the brain