

Name: _____

Date: _____

Chapter 2

Across

5. a term used for measles
 6. an acute but mild disease caused by rubella virus
 7. injury to body tissue caused by heat for example
 8. human immunodeficiency virus
 10. a drug that kills or inhibits the growth of microorganisms
 11. outer layer of skin
 12. a blister larger than 0.5 cm
 15. dry skin
 21. a flat discolored spot on the skin
 22. a drug that kills or prevent the growth of fungi
 24. a solid mass greater than 1 cm in diameter and limited to the surface of the skin

25. graft transfer to a new position in the body of the same person
 26. a thin flake of exfoliated epidermis
 27. inherited skin disease marked by red itchy skin patches
 28. acquired immunodeficiency syndrome
 30. basal cell carcinoma

Down

1. hard protein material found in the epidermis, hair and nails
 2. a skin infectious consisting of furuncles
 3. dark brown to black pigment contained in melanocytes
 4. an acute contagious disease caused by varicella zoster
 9. protein substance in skin and connective tissue

13. severe itching
 14. a pus filled sack
 16. removal of small pieces of tissue for microscopic pathologic examination
 17. malignant neoplasm composed of melanocytes
 18. inflammation of the fingernails or toenails
 19. a general term for skin eruption
 20. tissue death associated with loss of blood supply
 23. outgrowth of the skin composed of keratin
 29. squamous cell carcinoma