

Chapter 2 Fin. Lit.

Across

2. is spending a morning or afternoon with a worker in the type of job that interests you

5. a desired end toward which efforts are directed

7. is the knowledge and skills acquired from working in a career field

8. the ideals in life that are important to you

11. a natural physical or mental ability that allows you to do certain tasks well

13. is a member of your network, such as a relative, friend, member of a group to which you belong, or a former work associate

14. provides part- or full-time temporary job placement

15. is a record of the jobs you have held and how long you stayed with each employer

Down

1. where students attend classes part of the day and then go to a job that provides supervised field experience

3. help job seekers find a job for which they are qualified

4. things you like to do

6. is a type of employment agency that seeks out highly qualified people to fill important positions for an employer

9. the people live their lives based on the values they have chosen

10. is made up of individual qualities that make you unique

12. Who they are and how they fit in