

Chapter 2 Speech

Across

4. communication between persons who have different cultural beliefs, values, or ways of behaving

7. socially constructed roles that society deems appropriate for males and females

8. culture that most of the information is explicitly stated in the verbal message

12. level of tolerance to uncertainty

13. differences in pronunciation, the emphasis or stress you place on various syllables

14. culture that much of the information in communication is in the context or in the person

15. culture that values modesty, concern for relationships and the quality of life, and tenderness

17. curbing of gratification and its regulation by social norms

18. the values, ways of behaving, beliefs of the host culture become more and more a part of the immigrants' culture

19. the tendency to see others and their behaviors through your own culture filters, often as distortions of your own behaviors

20. civility, consideration, refinement, respect, and regard for others as expressed verbally and nonverbally

Down

1. variations of language, mainly in the grammar and the semantics

2. a fixed impression of a group of people

3. people are treated as individuals, rather than in terms of the groups to which they belong

5. the process by which you learn the culture in which you are born

6. culture that teaches members the importance of individual values such as power, achievement, hedonism, and stimulation

9. culture that values aggressiveness, material success, and strength

10. culture that teaches members the importance of group values such as benevolence, tradition, and conformity

11. the process by which you learn the rules and norms of a culture different from your native culture

16. fosters a strong in group affiliation with much less respect for out group members

Word Bank

exclusionism

acculturation

assimilation

collectivist

feminine

restraint

masculine

Gender

ambiguity

politeness

highcontext

intercultural

individualist

stereotype

universalism

enculturation

dialect

ethnocentrism

lowcontext

accent