

Chapter 2 Vocab #4

Across

1. the distribution of a drug that has generalized all inclusive effect on the body

4. hives itching sensation

9. slightly elevated red areas on the body surface

10. a disease symptom or condition for which the drug will not be beneficial and may do harm

12. itching sensation

14. the optimum dosage, providing the best chance for successful therapy

15. individualized doses of drugs based on absorption distribution metabolism and elimination of drugs from the body

16. effect of a drug in preventing infection or disease

Down

2. the amount of drug in a patients blood at which beneficial effects occur

3. the desired action of a drug in the treatment of a particular disease state or symptom

5. the property of a receptor site that enables it to bind only with a specific chemical messenger

6. a secondary response to a drug other than primary therapeutic effect for which drug was intended

7. not depending on the concentration of the drug in the body

8. a protein molecule on surface of or within a cell that recognizes and binds with specific molecules thereby producing some effect within the cell

11. a decrease in response to the effects of a drug as it continues to be administered

13. a drugs ability to dissolve in body fluids

Word Bank

specificity

precaution

side effect

therapeutic range

therapeutic effect

solubility

zeroorder

urticaria

prophylaxis

wheals

therapeutic level

receptor

systemic effect

pruritus

pharmacokinetics

tolerance