

Name: _____

Date: _____

Chapter 2

Across

2. the atmosphere of the earth is created by oxygen and

5. The continental shelf is widest in the ____ Ocean

8. The water beneath the earth's surface is termed

11. The seaward edge of the continental shelf, where the bottom steepens considerably, is termed the shelf

Down

1. The asthenosphere is a portion of the

3. most of the abyssal hills are ____ rocks that may be covered with a thin layer of sediment

4. The rift valley of the mid-ocean ridges is formed by

6. The outermost shell of the earth is called the

7. A dark-colored, volcanic rock rich in silicon, oxygen and magnesium

9. The continuous submarine mountain range which winds through all oceans is called

10. When the earth was a molten mass, its elements and compounds separated from each other according to their