

Name: _____

Date: _____

Chapter 3

Across

3. LVP is the primary source of what
 5. smaller the gauge needle, the _____ the hole
 8. a fluid that is typically sterile water or normal saline used to dissolve or reconstitute powder
 11. manufacturer made parenteral medication
 14. what type of container is used for disposal of needles
 15. outer packaging on a supply

17. under or beneath the skin
 18. one of the primary tools for sterile compounding

Down

1. what needle component can come in contact with your hand
 2. container for sterile liquid or powdered medication
 4. rounded part of the bevel opposite of the needle tip
 6. container of medication lacking a preservative indicating one time use

7. small glass container for sterile liquid or powdered medication
 9. most common type of needle
 10. pharmacy term meaning that an additive or diluent has been added
 12. refers to the beyond use date of a product once it is opened or mixed
 13. how many type of iv tubing
 16. hollow, inner core of a needle