

Chapter 3 Project: Assignment #2

Across

2. Grants made for specific projects to the States (etc.) who apply for them
6. Power granted to the National Government by the Constitution
11. The legal process by which a fugitive in one State is returned to another
12. Suggested powers by the National Government that are both "necessary and proper"
13. All government are subject to law

14. Federal grants to aid a public policy

15. Act directing people of the U.S to create a State constitution upon entering the Union

Down

1. Basic rules that the government must obey
3. Powers that Congress and the President need to complete a task
4. A provision made to the Constitution that states that federal law and treaties are the "supreme Law of the Land"

5. Group of people chosen in each State to make the formal decision of selecting a President and a Vice President

7. Constitutional law that separates governmental power based on geographics

8. Powers not granted to the National Government and denied to any State

9. Lower federal courts under the Supreme Court

10. Goes against the constitution, not put into force and effect