

Name: _____

Date: _____

Chapter 3 words

Across

3. Dorthy missed her danced practice on Saturday, but her coach was forbearing about it.
4. The Brazil football fans' spirit declined as the offense player missed a goal.
7. The referee was candid when it came to dealing with the scores because he recieved a warning from the board about not being objective.
8. Rosa was doing her homework while she had an open tab with a geometry example on it; however, her sister came in and eliminated that website and replaced it with a dance video.
9. The school rules on the classroom wall were authorized to help the faculty, teachers, and the students to comply with the rules
10. Civillians in Syria faced hazzards from collapsing buildings.

Down

1. Benvelio had sincerity in his anecdote when he had to talk about the murder scene, and that allowed the Prince to find no invalid information in his objective answer.
2. Cairie tried to impair Allie's strength before the basketball tournament by challenging her to play mini games, so she gets tired.
5. The winner of the case was apparent; however, the judge wasn't fond of her because she kept looking up towards the ceiling.
6. The new student in Ridley High School looked inexperienced because he didn't know where the main office was, and he also looked frightened as he walked through the hallways.