

Name: _____

Date: _____

Chapter 42

Across

2. the principle by which one nation defers and gives effect to the laws and judicial decrees of another nation. this recognition is based primarily on respect
7. the selling of goods in a foreign country at a price below the price charged for the same goods in the domestic market
9. a government's taking of a privately owned business or personal property without legal public purpose or an award of just compensation
10. To sell products to buyers located in other countries
11. a tax on imported goods

Down

1. a doctrine that immunizes foreign nations from the jurisdiction of the US courts when certain conditions are satisfied
3. a bank in which another bank has an account for the purpose of facilitating fund transfers
4. the seizure by a government of a privately owned business or personal property for a proper public purpose and with just compensation
5. any arrangement in which the owner of a trademark, trade name, or copyright licenses another to use it under specified conditions in the selling of goods or services
6. a formal written agreement negotiated between two or more nations
8. a set limit on the amount of goods that can be imported