

Chapter 5

Across

4. A student's IEP is reevaluated at least _____ a year
6. Altering _____ goals means to change the learning expectations of the lesson
8. In the U.S. providing modifications to curriculum is a component of _____
9. Accommodations make curriculum _____
10. Modifications make curriculum _____
11. Altering the _____ method means to provide the student with disabilities an alternate and better-suited form of instruction

Down

1. Making the curriculum available to students who work below grade level
2. Personalized forms of support that go beyond the typical accommodations and classroom interventions
3. Can be used to facilitate access to content material in the general education classroom
5. As a teacher, you want to focus on ability not _____ level
7. It is the classroom teacher's responsibility to teach _____ students

Word Bank

achievable
once accessible
all

accommodations
curriculum modifications instructional educational

FAPE
grade
modifying curriculum