

Chapter 5 Health

Across

5. the abuse of one spouse by another.
 7. an adult or couple who cares for children whose biological parents are unable to care for them.
 12. the nonphysical mistreatment of another person.
 13. consists of a couple and their child or children living together in one household.
 14. A child who leaves home without permission for one or more days.

15. an arrangement in which spouses live apart and try to work out their problems.

16. intentionally causing physical harm to another person.

17. consists of a biological parent, a step-parent, and the children of one or both parents.

Down

1. Legal agreement to end a marriage.

2. the ability to understand another person's thoughts or feelings

3. a group of close relatives living together or near each other.

4. a network of people who help each other cope with a particular problem.

6. a family in which only one parent lives with the child or children.

8. when an adult fails to provide for the needs of children.

9. The process of teaching children how to act in a family and or society.

10. Brother and sisters.

11. when an adult uses a child or adolescent for sexual purposes.