

Chapter 5

Across

- 5. unconcerned with the rightness or wrongness of something
- 9. instrumental value, name one that starts with H
- 12. walmart is an example of a
- 14. idea of businessesw have social responsibility
- 15. the charitable donation of company recources
- 16. taking in the initiative in formulating and putting in place for new programs that serve a role as models for the industry

17. resisiting additional social responsibilities.

Down

- 1. unselfish devotion to the interests of others
- 2. business ultimately helps itself by helping solve social problems
- 3. Denying responsibility while striving to maintain status duo.
- 4. Ethical Advocate provides comprehensive ethics and compliance solutions, including ethics and compliance training

- 6. study of moral obligations involving the distinction between right and wrong
- 7. assuming social responsibility only in response to pressure from interestgroups of the government
- 8. terminal value, name one that starts with F
- 10. disclousure by a person to he public or person with authority
- 11. abstract ideas that shape one's thinking and behavior
- 13. those who do not use power in a socially responsible way will eventually lose what