

Chapter 5: Introduction to Clinical Education

Across

4. Informational and observational activities that may occur in formal or informal settings, typically in the classroom, laboratory, or online

10. One of the three major categories or domains of learning; includes various levels of thought, such as knowledge, understanding, reasoning and judgement

13. Program level measurable expectations for student learning

14. One of the three major categories or domains of learning; includes behaviors guided by feelings and emotions that are influenced by an individual's interests, values, beliefs, and attitudes

15. Program official responsible for clinical instruction, supervision, and evaluation of students in the clinical setting

17. Activities in clinical that aid or support the performance of radiographic procedures and therapeutic treatments

18. Program official responsible for coordinating clinical education and evaluation of its effectiveness

Down

1. Observable and documented successful achievement of performance objectives

2. Oversight of clinical procedures by a qualified professional immediately available to the student

3. Learning in one context and applying it to another

5. Oversight of clinical procedures or treatment by a qualified professional present in the exam or treatment room with the student

6. Activities in clinical where students watch and listen to the performance of radiographic procedures and therapeutic treatments

7. Typical concise descriptions of an observable behavior to be achieved by students as a result of their educational experiences within a course or educational module

8. Health care professionals employed in the clinical setting where students participate in clinical education and provide clinical supervision and guidance

9. One of three categories or domains of learning; behavior involving physical actions, neuromuscular manipulations, and coordination

11. Program official that provides leadership for the program and ensures program effectiveness

12. Activities in clinical where students complete radiographic procedures and therapeutic treatments with appropriate supervision of a qualified professional

16. Procedures and activities that occur in outpatient and inpatient health care settings