

Chapter 5 section 1 Lily Miller

Across

3. A person trying to earn people's votes for a public office is a?

6. Ideas that receive recognition from both parties are?

12. A person that isn't really concerned about governmental control, but is more open to change is called a?

14. The Libertarian Party, The Green Party, and any other small political parties are considered a?

15. The agreement to work together temporarily to help the government is called?

16. When a variety of political parties compete and win public office, it is considered a?

17. A person who believes in more individual responsibility and less in governmental control is called a?

Down

1. A group of people who attempts to control the government by getting its candidates elected is a?

2. Strong support of a political party is?

4. Obama is what of office?

5. Trying to get a person elected to a political office is called a?

7. Dictatorships and other governments with only one political party are considered a?

8. Donald Trump was the Republican Party's?

9. The Republican and Democratic parties are examples of a?

10. A political party's belief on issues are its?

11. The tool voters use to vote for a candidate in an election is called a?

13. The people who are allowed to vote in an election is?