

Chapter 6

Across

2. congruent messages
4. nonverbal communication
7. incongruent messages
10. regulators / help control turn taking during interpersonal
12. illustrators / accent verbal
13. vocalics / communicate non verbal
16. high contact cultures / prefer frequent touching, shared
17. proxemics / position yourself from others while
19. display rules

Down

1. haptics / communication scholars refer to
3. dominance / involves behaviors used to exert power and
5. affect displays / nonverbal communication intentional or
6. adapters / touching
8. low-contact cultures / larger physical distance and indirect
9. intimacy / feeling of bonding or union between yourself and

11. emblems / substitute for verbal
14. kinesics / communication scholars refer to body
15. submissiveness / is the willingness to allow others to exert power over
18. artifacts / objects you possess to communicate your identity to