

Name: _____

Date: _____

Chapter 6

Across

5. Memory loss limited to specific times and events, particularly traumatic events

9. purposely faking physical symptoms

12. Dissociative disorder featuring the inability to recall personal information, usually of a stressful or traumatic nature

14. memory loss

15. re-experiencing emotionally traumatic events as a means of purging them

17. who are more likely to develop somatic symptom disorder

18. severe anxiety about the possibility of having or acquiring a serious disease

19. Patients are more likely to develop DID during

20. loss of memory of all personal information, including identity

21. faking, deliberate faking of a physical or psychological disorder motivated by gain

22. altered motor or sensory function that is inconsistent with neurologically / medical conditions and not better explained by another disorder, causes significant distress and impairment

23. Somatic symptom disorder and a related condition known as illness anxiety disorder

24. known as multiple personality disorder

Down

1. Altered state of consciousness in which people firmly believe they are possessed by spirits; considered a disorder only where there is distress and dysfunction is dissociative

2. Shorthand term for alter egos, the different personalities or identities in dissociative identity disorder

3. Dissociative disorder in which feelings of depersonalization are so severe they dominate the client's life and prevent normal functioning

4. excessive or maladaptive response to physical symptoms or health concerns, first identified by French doctor and called Briquet's syndrome

6. personality disorder that lies in a neurobiologically shared disinhibition syndrome characterized by impulsive behavior.

7. Alters are developed as a means by which to cope with

8. The symptoms of DID are sometimes viewed as extreme forms of those seen in

10. Dissociative disorder featuring sudden, unexpected travel away from home, along with an inability to recall the past, sometimes with assumption of a new identity

11. feeling of worry

13. situation in which the individual loses a sense of the reality of the external world

16. that causes the switch between alternate identities in order to change the trauma from a current event

Word Bank

malingering

amnesia

short-term

antisocial

Dissociative fugue

memory

catharsis

Dissociative amnesia

posttraumatic stress

woman

Generalized Amnesia

illness Anxiety

localized amnesia

trance disorder

Depersonalization disorder

derealization

identity disorder

Somatic Symptom

childhood

conversion disorder

alters anxiety trauma

factitious