

Chapter 6

Across

5. parental discipline that uses consequences and reinforces good behavior

7. religious tactic to teach moral rules

8. guardian that plays a bigger role in gender socialization

10. age 5-6 of Mead's classification of social development

11. parenting style that is dependent, passive, conforming

12. inadequately developed self regulation

Down

1. type of aggression that shows signs of anger and intent to inflict pain

2. creates a positive response that evokes specific emotions

3. parenting style that is impulsive, behavioral problems, poor academically

4. excessive degree of self regulation

6. most significant sociomoral emotion that develops in early childhood

9. secondary source where children can receive educational benefits