

Chapter 7 Crossword

Across

- 1. This was one of the Coercive Acts, which shut down Boston Harbor until Boston repaid the East India Company for the lost tea.
- 4. Tax on sugar and molasses
- 11. How many colonies met In Philadelphia, from September 5th to October 26th, 1774, the First Continental Congress met to discuss problems.
- 12. After seven years war Britain had huge
- 13. The economic theory that all parts of an economy should be coordinated for the good of the whole state; hence, that colonial economics should be subordinated for the benefit of an empire.
- 14. Americans could buy manufactured products only from?

- 15. March 5, 1770: 60 civilians began to rough around 10 British troops. After one was hit with a club and another knocked down. The troops responded by opening fire and wounded or killed 11 civilians.
  - 16. He ordered the navy to enforce the navigation acts, in 1764 passed the sugar acts (which passed duties on sugar) Then the quartering act in 1765, which required colonists to provide room and board for British troops.
- Down
- 2. A meeting of 27 delegates from 9 colonies in NYC in 1765, they drew up a statement of their rights and grievances and appealed to the king to repeal the legislation.

- 3. Law restricted commerce from the colonies to England (and back) to only English ships, and none other.
- 5. I. Charles “Champaign Charley” Townshend (a man who could deliver brilliant speeches in Parliament even while drunk) persuaded Parliament to pass the
- 6. required certain colonies to provide food and quarters for British troops.
- 7. A runaway mulatto and the leader of the mob who was killed in the massacre.
- 8. An act which extended the old boundaries of Quebec all the way to the Ohio River.
- 9. Where did representatives from 9 of the 13 colonies meet in 1765 to discuss the Stamp Tax
- 10. Which colony was formally planted by British?