

Chapter 7: Genuineness of Assent

Across

2. Agreement to enter into a contract that is evidenced by words or conduct between the parties

6. an obligation that cannot be broken

8. bilateral mistake

9. One in which an inordinate amount of trust and confidence is placed by a dependent party in the dominant party

13. Monetary award by the court to a person who has suffered loss of injury because of the act of omission of another

15. Contract in which the injured party can withdraw, thus cancelling the contract

17. Punishable offense against society

18. Backing out of the transaction by asking for the return of what you gave and offering to give back what you received

20. Agreement between two parties that creates an obligation

22. Tort in which the defendant means to commit the injurious act

23. Forbidden by law

24. Occurs when one party holds an incorrect belief about the facts of the related to a contract

Down

1. Party to a contract does not know that a statement he or she made is untrue

3. Intentional misrepresentation of an existing, important fact

4. Occurs when one party to a contract is in a position of trust and wrongfully dominates the other party

5. Private or civil wrong for which the law grants a remedy

7. Acting toward the contract as though one intends to be bound by it

10. Occurs when one party uses an improper threat or act to obtain an expression of agreement

11. Important facts that influence both parties decisions about a contract

12. Legally binding and enforceable

14. Both parties to a contract have an incorrect belief about an important fact

16. Without legal effect

19. a person or thing likely to cause damage or danger

21. behavior involving physical force intended to hurt, damage, or kill someone or something