

Chapter 7 "Learning"

Across

- 9. mental connection between two stimuli
10. stimulus that has been associated with a natural response
11. pattern that is recognized in experience or complex reality that helps to explain or deal with it
12. reaction of an organism to a stimulus
13. learning by associating various stimuli with a response

- 14. learned response to a conditioned stimulus that is not natural

Down

- 1. any event that encourages or discourages repetition of a behavior
2. encouraging or discouraging a behavior through reinforcement or punishment
3. organisms natural response to a stimulus
4. stimulus to which an organism has a natural response

- 5. Tollman's term for the mental processing of spatial relationships a person or animal experience

- 6. some action that produces activity in an organism
7. relatively permanent change in behavior resulting from practice or experience
8. processes of thinking, memory formation, learning, and problem solving, among others