

Chapter 8: Development Across the Life Span

Across

2. Controlled expression trait
 6. Zygote that splits in two
 7. A insecurely attached attached infant or child
 9. The sense that is least developed at birth
 10. The kind of monkey that was used in Harlow's classic research
 11. A neurodevelopmental disorder that impairs thinking, feeling, language, and social skills

Word Bank

- | | | | |
|-----------|---------------|-----------------|-------------------|
| vision | language | respiration | rhesus |
| difficult | ambivalent | ASD | monozygotic-twins |
| moral | dominant-gene | dizygotic-twins | |

Down

1. One of the critical areas of adjustment that deals with breathing
 3. Two eggs that are fertilized
 4. A infant that is irregular, nonadaptable, and irritable
 5. The stage of _____ development includes; babbling, cooing, and one-word speech
 8. Kohlberg proposed three levels of _____ development