

Chapter 8 Vocabulary

Across

4. the area just at the edge of or beyond a settled area
 6. a particular religious group
 10. one who measures and maps out the size, shape, position, and so on of an area of land
 11. regional form of language
 12. one who buys something, such as land, hoping it will increase in value and, when sold, provide a profit

13. an injection or shot to protect against a disease
 14. one who agreed to work for a period, usually seven years, as a servant in America in exchange for passage to the New World
 15. the practice of owning people as property and forcing those people to work for a slaveholder

Down

1. one who leaves his or her native country to settle in another
 2. able to be spread by contact or close association
 3. a journey for a specific purpose, such as exploration
 5. the sole possession or control of something
 7. an outbreak of a disease that spreads rapidly through the community
 8. a military force composed mostly of citizen soldiers
 9. to deny someone or some group their rights because of prejudice